

Homework 12

Work with the contract you developed in homework 9

1. Add an owner argument to the constructor and store this as a variable in the contract
2. Add a mint function with argument amount which will increase the total supply and the balance by the amount.
3. Deploy your contract locally and test the mint function.